U. S. E. S. OPENS BRANCH OFFICE IN ELBA

Mr. William L. Walker, manager of the Alabama State Employment Service Office in Enterprise, wishes to announce the establishment of a permanent branch office in Elba, August 1, 1947. The new office is located upstairs in the Page Building. This office was previously occupied by the Selective Service Board.

A. A. Childs, representing the Alabama State Employment Service in Elba for the past six months is stationed in the new office, Monday through Friday from 8:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Anyone wishing to apply for employment, seek information regarding unemployment compensation or Veterans benefits are encouraged to contact Mr. Childs at this office.

Claims-takers from the Enterprise office will be in the Elba office each Thursday taking re-adjustment, self-employed and Unemployment Compensation claims. The employers of Elba have been very cooperative with the Alabama State Employment Service in placing applicants in the various business establishments and industries. Their further cooperation will be greatly appreciated in the future.

Soil Conservation By Edwards and Tullos

Fourteen Coffee County farmer-cooperators of the Wiregrass Soil Conservation District are planning to seed 75 acres to Dixie Crimson Clover this fall for grazing, soil improvement, and erosion control. Dixie Crimson Clover is a re-seeding strain that will volunteer each year if properly handled when it is producing seed in the spring, and it produces good grazing in this county during January, February, and March. It is especially recommended for dairymen and hog producers to use in their grazing system.

Farmers who are planning to give the re-seeding clover a trial are: Duncan Finlay, Wilson Robertson, James Martin, Jim Martin, Charlie Dukes, S. M. Paschal, and J. J. Murdock of the Enterprise area; J. N. Wallace and Rush Armor, of New Brockton; Roy Barlow and Clyde Moore, of Basin; Edgar Blacklock, of Fairview; and Grafton Young, of Curtis.

A. L. Moates, of Enterprise says that he sold enough sericea hay to pay for seeding and fertilizing his six acres of sericea, so all the grazing that his cows have received was free. Mr. Moates bought his seed several years ago when there was no government assistance and seed was scarce.

The time for seeding lupine, oats and other winter legumes and grazing crops is just around the corner—next month to be exact. Are you going to neglect your land, livestock, and family just because Uncle Sam is a bit slow in footing the bill?

Cover crops mean better crops and better living and better livestock. So how can we afford to leave our land bare?

Mrs. F. T. Bryant Celebrates 64th Birthday

On July 27, children, grandchildren and a number of friends met with Mr. and Mrs. Felix T. Bryant of Opp, Route 3, to celebrate Mrs. Bryant's sixty-fourth birthday. During the day music and singing were enjoyed. At the noon hour a delicious dinner was served to sixty guests.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. Owen Marler and family and Mr. Rawls of Florida. Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Warrick and family of Flomaton, Mr. and Mrs. James Giles and family, Mrs. Clarence Wesley, Mrs. Clarence Welch and granddaughter of Birmingham.

FEDERAL BILL TO PROVIDE LIBRARY FUNDS

Montgomery — A congressional sub-committee this week approved a bill that will allot up to $25,000 annually over a five year period for the expansion of library service in Alabama. It has been announced by Mrs. Lois Green, Director of the State Library Service.

The director said also that an additional $25,000 could be obtained if the state would match the federal fund of that amount thus providing for a total of $75,000 annually for an extensive library service throughout Alabama.

NAVY DEVELOPS HEAVYWEIGHT FIGHTER

Have a care, Joe Louis, Maynard Jones is on your trail. Maynard Jones is a 6-foot 190 pound heavyweight boxer developed by the United States Navy. And he has a ring record so impressive even Mr. Louis must be greatly concerned.

Just listen to some of the accomplishments of the laughing, amiable colored boy: He has had 43 bouts and has won them all either by knockouts or technical knockouts. No one has been able to stay as long as three rounds with this hard clouting, fast punching, quick stepping blue-jacket.

He is the heavyweight champion of the navy and is so good none of the other heavyweights want any part of him. They say he hits as hard as Louis.

Louis may even take on Jones if his protegee, Joe already has arranged to have his trainer, Manny Seamon, keep in touch with Maynard to be sure that he is on the right track; that no one tries to change his style. So Louis must think Jones is pretty nearly perfect.

There is one question still to be answered: Can Jones go well over a long fight? Well, if he has been knocking out all the boys in less than three rounds, there is nothing to worry about.

A strong feeling exists in boxing circles that Maynard could do a job on any of the heavyweight fighters right this minute. And that includes Joe Louis.

EXPERTS STUDY AMAZON RIVER POSSIBILITIES

Europeans ousted from their homes by the war may find themselves settled in the jungles of the Amazon, was indicated in an announcement that a team of scientists has been dispatched by the United Nations to study conditions in the interior of Brazil.

The project is under the direction of the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization, which sponsored it. Living in the mystery-shrouded region of the Amazon might not be as bad as it sounds. The land, which compares with the United States in size, is potentially a great source of raw materials, including almost limitless supplies of rubber. Also, tribes in some parts of the region are said to be totally free of cancer.

Finding homes for displaced persons is not the primary object of the expedition. The commission hopes mainly to get information on the region which will lead to the development of the land. Virtually all branches of science are represented, as the party includes botanists, zoologists, chemists, geologists, meteorologists, anthropologists, and doctors.

Ever since the discovery of the Amazon, in 1500, explorers have been trying and failing to penetrate its mysteries. Sir Walter Raleigh was one of them. About 50 years ago another Englishman, Col. Pawcett, moved into the jungle. He has not been heard from since.

FARMER BENEFITS TO BE DERIVED FROM NEW LAWS

Representative H. B. Larkins advises that a Local Act placing the selection of Coffee County Superintendent of Education back on the elective basis has been signed into law by the governor. The law was changed during the last administration to make this position appointive by the County Board of Education. There will be an election in 1948 for the position of County Superintendent which term will begin in July, 1949.

The two bills introduced several weeks ago in the House of Representatives by Rep. Larkins, namely, an act to furnish free of charge to the farmers anti-hog cholera virus and serum; and an act appropriating funds and providing for a program of research and experimentation on peanuts at the Wiregrass Experiment Station at Headland, have been passed by the House and sent to the Senate for action. Mr. Larkins states that he believes that these two bills will be passed into law, thereby greatly aiding the farmers of Coffee County and the Wiregrass section in general.

Coffee County is third in the entire nation in the production of peanuts and third in Alabama in hog production. Both of these crops are very vital to the economic welfare of our farmers. Improvement of the peanut industry from the breeding of seed through the final harvesting can materially add to the peanut farmers' income. Hog cholera destroys millions of dollars worth of hogs each year. The act providing for improvement in this field is aimed at increasing the farm income from hogs.

Vets May Enlist For Duty In Europe

Effective August 1, 1947, men who have previous military service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard may enlist for direct assignment to the European Theater provided they possess a MOS needed by the European Command. Sgt. H. D. Averett Station Commander of the local Army recruiting station, announced today.

This offer for duty in the European Command applies to men who enlist for three, four, or five years. Sgt. Averett pointed out, and men who were honorably discharged on or after May 12, 1945 may qualify to enlist for the European Command in grades as high as grade three—Staff Sergeant—provided they possess an MOS applicable to the Regular Army.

Men who desire assignments to the European Theater will be enlisted for the Regular Army Unassigned.

Details about this offer for assignment to the European Theater may be obtained at the local Army recruiting station located in the O'Neal building in Andalusia.

State Gas Tax To Top 25 Mills This Year

Montgomery — Basing his estimate on the $18,519,946 collected the first nine months of the present fiscal year, A. B. Tucker, chief of the revenue department's gas tax division, stated that it now looks like the total revenue will pass $25,000,000 for the fiscal year of 1946.

If the estimated amount is collected, it will represent a tidy sum above the $21,700,000 collected last year.

Alabama has a six cent per gallon on all gasoline sold. The revenue is split equally between the state highway department and the counties, the entire amount to be expended on road construction and upkeep.

The Singing Society of Fairview community wish to announce their first singing Friday night August 8th at 8 p. m. Everyone is invited to come and help with the singing.

Ralph Draughton Temporary Head At Auburn

Montgomery — In a special executive session called by the governor, Ralph Draughton, former assistant to the late Dr. Luther N. Duncan, was named chief executive officer of the API board of trustees.

A regular board meeting was scheduled for August 11, at which time the question of selecting a permanent president for the institution will be considered. It was announced by O. H. Finney, executive secretary to Gov. Folsom.

COUNTY HEALTH PROGRAM ON AIR SUNDAY

Garland Weldner, M. D., Coffee County Health Officer, will speak next Sunday over Andalusia at 2:15 p. m. and at Dothan at 3:15 p. m. Tuesday (Dothan Station Mutual Broadcasting Company) and will describe the program at the Coffee County Board of Health as made possible for improving the health of children and adults. This program will be offered to those schools in which the teachers and the parents show most interest. The Health Department will decide which schools to select for the program by learning where the teachers and the parents have the most interest and willingness to work for the improvement of the children and themselves. Parents will be asked to attend community meetings at which the program will be explained.

The State Health Department is still unable to offer sufficient hookworm tests for testing all our school children as we would like to do. Tests done last school year show that we have more children with hookworm than before the war. With the limited number of tests we will be allowed, we will be able to do the most good if we will use them only to carry out the Better Growth Program. It is therefore important that the parents interested in giving their children the most health service let the teachers know of their interest. Parents should also be interested in their neighbors and prepare for good attendance when Health Meetings are held in the neighborhood. Attendance at these meetings will help the Health Department decide what community will be offered the most service.

Interested parents should also write to the Health Department giving names and addresses of interested families. This will assist the Health Department in making a schedule of meetings in communities which show the most interest.

C. T. Barbaree, a Gainesville, Ga., left-hander, who is only 19 years old, could become one of baseball's greatest pitchers—if only he'd gain control.

This 165-pound youngster has done some amazing things on the mound, yet he has suffered some very discouraging setbacks. In two starts during the first week of June he struck out 13 batters while walking 14. Against another team he really had his fast ball working, fanning 22.

In the first contest he worked for Gainesville this season he struck out 22 to set up a new record for the Class D league. Several weeks ago Leppig hurled a one-hit game and fanned 15, but he lost the contest, 8 to 3, as he walked 18 men.

His speed is so dazzling it has caused some oldtime major leaguers to remark they haven't seen his equal since Bob Feller broke in with the Cleveland Indians.

POWERFUL BUG POISON One of the best garden insecticides is 75 per cent rotenone. It will kill more kinds of insects than any other material known, states API extension gardener J. C. Ford. Keep plenty on hand for the fall garden he urges.

To prevent cheese from molding after it has been cut, wrap it in pieces of cheesecloth, dampened with vinegar and place it in a covered container.

FOLSOM ASKS INVESTIGATION OF PRISONS

Montgomery — In a special message to both the House and Senate, Gov. James E. Folsom called upon the lawmakers to carry out a thorough investigation of the prison system in Alabama, and asked them to pay specific attention to such things as discipline, rehabilitation and morals.

Frank Boswell, Director of the Department of Corrections and Institutions, stated that he would welcome such an investigation, and added that he has been urging such a move ever since he took office in the present administration. Boswell said that the state prison system is in a pitiful and deplorable situation.

The governor urged the legislators to make a most definite investigation, beginning with the day a prisoner entered behind the bars, and carrying it right on through his term, including the methods and procedures of pardons which make him again a free man.

The governor asked too that a study be made of the fee system throughout the state. He referred primarily to the fee system used by county sheriffs to collect various services in connection with arrests.

It is very likely that such an investigation will get underway soon, in view of the wide publicity the state prisons have been receiving of late.

Jack Brock Is Promoted To Capt. In Army

Augusta, Ga. — Recently promoted to the rank of Captain was Jack Brock of New Brockton, Ala. Captain Brock is the Assistant Chief of the Out-Patient Department at Oliver General Hospital, Augusta, and instrumental in the organization of the sport activities of the Officers stationed at Oliver General Hospital.

Capt. Brock is a graduate of the University of Alabama, and a member of the Phi Chi fraternity at the college. During his stay in the army, he graduated from the Medical School of the University of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Jack Brock, the former Miss Nellwyn Bumpers of Gadsden, lives with their 2 children in Gadsden.

Georgia Pitcher Expected To Become Great

PEANUT PRICES SET Atlanta, Ga., July 30 (AP)—(USDA)—Support prices on 1947 farmers' stock peanuts were announced today by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration.

Spanish and Valencia type peanuts of base grade and 70 per cent mature sound kernels will be supported at $203 a ton east of the Mississippi River, and $201 west of the River. Runners of base grade 65 per cent mature sound kernels will be $185, while Virginia type of the same specifications will be $196.

For peanuts running higher or lower than the base grade in sound mature kernels, PMA said $1.60 a ton will be added or deducted from the base price in the case of Spanish and Valencia, $2.80 a ton on runners, and $3 for each full one per cent damage in excess of one per cent.

On Virginia-type peanuts, 30 cents a ton will be added for each full one per cent of extra large kernels.

The program covering farmers' stock peanuts is basically the same as that used last year except that this year dealers who wish to sell peanuts back to the Commodity Credit Corporation must sign a contract agreeing to pay scheduled prices on farmers' stock peanuts. In turn, CCC agrees to purchase dealers' farmers' stock inventories on the basis of outgrades and outweights.

The CCC also agrees to purchase a specified quantity of No. 2 shelled peanuts from shellers having contracts at the following prices: Spanish and Valencia, 14 3-4 cents a pound; runners 14 3-8 cents, and Virginias, 15 1-4 cents.

J. J. MATHEWS DIES WHILE HERE ON VISIT

Mr. J. J. Mathews, age 47, of Cleveland, O., died of a heart attack disease at Enterprise hospital last Wednesday night. Mr. Mathews was father-in-law to Mrs. Ann Wright, Mathews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Wright, and he and Mrs. Mathews had been visiting in the Wright home for the past three weeks.

Mr. Mathews' daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Hart flew from their home in Cleveland and arrived in Enterprise some time Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dorsey accompanied the Mathews family to Montgomery late Thursday evening. The body was carried from Enterprise to Montgomery by an Elba ambulance, and was sent from there to Cleveland by train. Elba friends deeply sympathize with the two families.

Spring Hill College in Mobile dates back to the founding in 1830. It was chartered by the State of Alabama in 1836, and in 1842 the Pope at Rome declared it a university. In 1848 the Jesuit priests took charge of the school, and by the scholarly teachings they have prepared hundreds of outstanding scholars, priests, artists, and laymen, many of whom have returned to Spring Hill to fuse their youth and energy into the brilliant result Order.

The Basin community held its regular monthly meeting on Friday night, August 1. Thirty shellers having contracts at the following prices: Spanish and Valencia, 14 3-4 cents a pound; runners 14 3-8 cents, and Virginias, 15 1-4 cents.

County Breeders Association Thirteen Coffee County breeders of Pure bred Duroc met in Enterprise Monday to form a County Breeders' Association. The purpose of this Association as outlined in the adopted Constitution is: To help promote improvement in the breeding, raising, and marketing of pure bred Duroc hogs in Coffee County, and to bring about closer co-operation among the breeders of the County. This is the first County Duroc Association to be formed in Alabama.

Charter members of the Association are: Adult, Fred Goodson, J. V. Barley, Willie Gunter, J. B. Spurlin, J. C. McInaney, Barney Wise, and H. C. Collier. Junior Members: Lavaghaun Barley, Jimmy Gunter, Wendell Collier, Bobby Davis and Donald Wise.

These thirteen farmers and farm boys are to be congratulated on the step they have taken. They foresee the advantage of being organized and working together rather than everybody pulling in a different direction. As Mr. Munn from Auburn, who helped form the Association, told the group, "you can advertise cheaper, sell for a higher price, and improve your breeding stock and breeding practices by working together."

Officers elected in the Association were: President, J. C. Laney, Enterprise, Ala.; Vice-president, Willie Gunter, Calverly; Sec. Treas., W. T. Kennedy, Enterprise; Board of Directors, Barney Wise, Fairview, J. B. Spurlin, Elba, Fred Goodson, Batton Cross Roads.

The membership voted to invite all breeders under 16 years of age to become members of the association free of charge. The association extended an invitation to all bona fide pure bred Duroc breeders in the County to join the association.

It's a good bet that all the breeders in the county, large or small, will be in this association before long. Quite a few others have already indicated that they are interested, but could not be at the meeting.

Income Tax Amendment

With the election just three weeks away no organized opposition has shown itself to the school tax amendment. Two years ago a similar diversion was sought but at that time powerful forces in the state came out in opposition and defeated it. The present plan, however, meets with approval of most of all the organized units in the state. The outcome of this election is vital to every taxpayer in the state. The tax revenue is needed to complete a program designed to raise the pay of Alabama school teachers. Should the voters turn down the proposal the legislature will have to rework its budget to find another source of income with which to pay the teachers. This would probably mean additional taxes on the already overburdened taxpayers.

If the amendment is passed it will mean additional funds for school buildings as well as for school teachers. It will be a step forward in the preparation of our youth for better citizenship and professional responsibilities.

The income tax amendment is now being published in The Clipper. We hope our readers will thoroughly study it.

Conditions leading up to the proposal of the amendment are as follows:

The state is collecting taxes on net incomes under a law that provides that the money can be used for only two purposes—payment of the floating debt of the state, and reduction of the state ad valorem taxes. There is now more money in this fund than is needed to pay the outstanding debts and to pay the homestead exemption. The law forbids expenditure of this money for purposes other than those mentioned, so the money left after these items are paid is lying idle as a surplus that cannot be used. This surplus will be increased each year.

Therefore, the state legislature, by an overwhelming vote has proposed the amendment to dispose of the funds in the following manner:

1. $12,294,860.00 will be set aside for the payment of the floating debt.
2. Approximately $6,700,000.00 will be set aside for payment of the "Old Bonded Debt" or "Carpet Bag Bonds."
3. The remainder of the surplus will be turned over to the Building Commission for use in school buildings. This money will be divided among city and county boards of education on a teacher unit basis.
4. Beginning October 1, 1947 the proceeds of the tax will be used for (a) Payment of money left through homestead exemptions. (b) The remainder will be used to pay school teachers salaries.

People in Coffee County pay very little of the income tax. Most of this tax comes from large corporations and from people who live in our larger cities. If the amendment is passed, however, Coffee County stands to benefit greatly. No new tax is to be added, it is just that the money already coming in must be released before it can be used.

Coffee County can lose little by the passing of this amendment, and she can gain much; therefore, we urge you all to vote "yes" on the 26th day of August.

Football

Though we would like very much to see Auburn and Alabama play football we think the senate goes much too far in threatening to cut off their appropriations if they don't. The money appropriated for these schools is solely for education and will be forthcoming, football or no football. The senate has a full time job without taking upon itself the burdens of running football games, and though they make good senators we doubt their ability as athletic directors.

Zipp Newman, in one of his joking moods, had this to say in his column in last Saturday's Birmingham News:

"The legislators should make it a law that Alabama and Auburn have to play every Saturday—10 games in 10 different cities—the 10 games to be awarded to the cities with the 10 largest stadia.

"Think what a boon this would be for building trades and manufacturers of stadium material. Every hamlet in Alabama could try to build a stadium seating 50,000 to 200,000. The legislators could use the stadium in the summer for speechmaking.

"If the State's going to run the football, then make it free to the taxpayers. By making it free to the taxpayers, no doubt the poll tax business would triple.

"Should Alabama and Auburn split the 10 game series, then there should be another series for the best two out of three games. This series could be played on New Year's Day, St. Patrick's Day and July 4.

"There should be fine print in the law about the coaches. The winning coach should be retained, the losing coach fired. In the event of a tie, fire both coaches."

Newman proposed further that the law should read that the school "winning the most games in a five-year period will have the right to set itself up as the State's seat of all higher learning."

"This could easily be accomplished by permitting the school winning the most games in five years to move all the buildings, including the stadium and playing field, from the losing campus to the winning campus."

Fishing—Right And Wrong

We heard a story the other day that tops them all when it comes to inconsideration of your fellowman. A citizen of Elba was fishing just below the dam when along came a group of men with a seine and had him move his pole so they could seine the hole in which he was fishing. As far as our friend, the pole fisherman, was concerned he might as well have fished the rest of the afternoon in a tub of water as in a place where the fish had just been dipped out in a net.

This practice, we are told, is very common around Elba. Game wardens are seldom seen in this section and sense is guided by his own conscience and sense of sportsmanship. It seems that man here has fallen far short of what should be expected of him.

Elba is blessed with lots of what could be good fishing grounds. If properly cared for our streams would provide enough fish for us all, but due to the utter lack of consideration and selfishness of a few, Elbians have to seek out other waters if they expect to get enough fish to make it worthwhile.

Seining isn't the only breach of sportsmanship showing up around our fishing grounds. Dynamiting and poisoning are also being practiced. These two are even worse than using the net because little fish as well as big ones are killed making fish less plentiful in years to come as well as in the present.

These acts are being committed by men who usually uphold the law and make otherwise good citizens. Perhaps it is thoughtlessness on their part. Think it over men. When you use a seine, a stick of dynamite or poison, you are taking what is not rightfully yours. The value of the fish you deprive your neighbors of isn't very much, but you are robbing him of a pleasure that is hard to replace. You who asked the man to move his pole so you could seine would have been surprised if he had used it if you had been trying to take his money. Is there any difference?

Mark Twain On Advertising

The Treasury Department, which has a habit of taking what little money we have away from us each year, now passes on to us without charge a little newspaper gem on advertising. We heard it many years ago, yet it still packs punch. Here it is:

"Mark Twain once edited a paper in Missouri. One of his subscribers wrote him that he had found a spider in his paper and wanted to know whether it meant good or bad luck. This is what Mark Twain replied:

"'Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither good or bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterwards.'"

We have no comment except that we hope those few merchants in this area who haven't yet decided to do a bit of regular advertising will read the above carefully, weigh the important thought contained and act accordingly.—The Monroe Journal.

Groceries

The man who continually squawks about the high prices of groceries has a short memory. Most of us can remember when cooking oil sold for fifty cents a gallon and the grocery bill was harder to pay than it is now.

Parable Of The Talents Pays Off In Ohio Church

One Sunday last spring, the Rev. E. N. Bigelow, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Little Bluffton, O., based his sermon on the biblical parable of the talents.

"And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his particular ability, and then went on his journey. And he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and gained five more."

Then the Rev. Mr. Bigelow gave a ten-dollar bill to each member of the congregation and told his flock to try and multiply their talents in any way they could.

Purpose of the plan, he explained to them, was to obtain $8,000 to remodel the 98-year-old church.

His congregation fell to with a will. And Bluffton's other eight churches co-operated. Some invested their talents in farm produce, and turned it at profit to net a tidy sum. Others raised chickens and launched live stock money-making plans. Women spent their time fashioning handbags and basting tasty delicacies, then sold them through local stores. The result: At the end of the five-month campaign the goal was far exceeded—with nearest $10,000 than the $8,000 which had been sought pouring into remodeling fund.

OLD CARS STILL RUN
If the family car has been exhibiting symptoms of age and you can't get a new one, reflect a moment on this report:

Making Its Point

There is a lady operating a board house down in Alabama who has a simple, solid, but most effective method of collecting money from delinquent boarders.

A new arrival at this lady's establishment noticed at supper that one of the boarders had one fork to many beside his plate, and seemed to be actually embarrassed over the circumstance.

"Why is he so disturbed over the extra fork?" the new boarder who had just arrived to the gentleman seated beside him.

"Oh, that's how the landlady collects past due board bills," was the laughing explanation. "When she puts that extra implement beside a plate it simply means 'fork over.'"

QUITE, PLEASE
The river boy had volunteered to guide the urban visitor on a fishing trip. Bewildered at an intricate angling tactics of his charge, the visitor ventured advice, but was told promptly that his counsel was not needed.

Despite his strange methods, the visitor finally hooked a small one. He, gazed at his catch in gleeful awe as the fish wriggled at the end of the line.

"What shall I do now, boy?" he asked.

"You've done so many amazin' things, I think you can 'jes' climb up the pole an' git 'im."

Heavy Dought
Three small boys were bragging about the prowess of their dads. The first boy said: "My dad writes a few short lines, calls it a poem, sends it away and gets $10 for it."

"My dad," spoke the second lad, "makes some dots on a piece of paper, calls it a song, sends it away and gets $20 for it."

"That's nothing," spoke up the third, "my father writes out a sermon on a sheet of paper, gets up in his pulpit and reads it, and it takes four men to bring in the money."

Overdose
A professor at medical school asked a student how much of a certain drug should be administered to a patient and the young man replied, "Five grains."

A minute later he raised his hand. "Professor," he said, "I would like to change my answer to that question."

The professor looked at his watch and replied, "Never mind, young man, your patient has been dead for 40 seconds."

Net Profit, $50,000
A business man had passed away, and his widow was crying. Then a life insurance representative appeared to help her complete claim.

She stole a look at the amount—$50,000—signed, and with a tear glancing at each eye, she sobbed, "You may not believe it, but I'd give $20,000 of this to have him back!"

BAKERY TALK
We've heard that college-bred means a four-year loaf made with dad's dough. Some crust, eh?

Ready and Eager
At a revival meeting a lowly, earnest sinner was giving the story of her conversion. "Friends," she said, "before this great change came over me, I felt so mean and hateful toward my uncle, that, if he had died, I wouldn't have attended his funeral. But now that I am so greatly changed I am willing to attend his funeral at any time."

No Timetable Needed
Salesman (in small town)—Say, mister, what time is it?
Native—Round about Wednesday, I think.

Salesman—No, what hour? I have to catch a train.
Native—Then Wednesday's close enough. No trains here till Saturday.

Generally That Way
A prospective bride and bridegroom were discussing their plans. He—After we are married, I will give you to understand that I am going to wear the pants of the family.
She—That is correct. But I shall tell you which pair to wear.

WHEREAS, notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment is required by law, and by the provisions of the Act submitting the amendment, to be given by a proclamation of the Governor to be published in each county in the state of Alabama once a week for four successive weeks next preceding the 26th day of August;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James E. Folsom, as Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that on Tuesday, the 26th day of August 1947, an election will be held at the several polling places within the State of Alabama, in the manner and form provided by law, upon the following proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Alabama of 1901:

"If the tax is authorized by vote of a majority of the qualified electors of the county in an election called for that purpose, Montgomery County shall have power to levy and collect a special county tax not exceeding four mills on each dollar of taxable property in the county to be used solely for acquiring, constructing, operating, equipping or maintaining county hospitals, or other public hospitals, non-profit hospitals and public health facilities. The Board of Revenue of said county may, within the limit of four mills on each dollar of taxable property, propose a rate of taxation sufficient to acquire, construct, equip, operate, maintain and improve hospitals and facilities and the number of years necessary for such purpose, and a rate of taxation to be levied thereafter sufficient to maintain such hospitals or facilities.
